To

L. Anantaswamy Rao, Esq, B. A.

Secretary to Govt. of Mysore,

Muzrai Department.

Dated, Chikmagalur, 29th July 1906.

Sir,

I have the honor to state that Ranganna, the holder of Savings Bank account No. 845 at the Kadur District Treasury, deposited Rs 100/- on account of utilizing every year the interest accruing therefrom towards Nivedanam at the Sri Kodanda Ramaswamy temple at Hirenagalur in the Chikmagalur Taluk, on the day of the death of her husband, which falls on the Ashadha Shuddha Navami. While depositing the sum, Ranganna made a request in her petition, dated the 25th July 1901, authorizing the Government to draw the annual interest for the performance of the intended service after her life time. Rangamma having died 2 years ago, the Amildar of Chikmagalur was authorized to draw a sum of Rs 5 for the performance of the service during the current year. As the Comptroller, to whom a requisition was made to make a note of the above authority in his Office to enable the like course being adopted in future years, has stated the Deputy Commissioner may, with the sanction of Government, have the Savings Bank Account of the deceased Rangamma drawn in his own name in his official capacity. I forward herewith a copy of the Comptroller's reply, and request that necessary sanction may be kindly accorded.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obt. Servant,

Deputy Commissioner
of Kadur

The Deputy Commissioner,
Treasury Department, Kadur District.

Dated 16th July 1906

No. 292
S.B. No. 27.

With reference to his No. 3 dated 6th instant, has the honor to state that in the special circumstances of the case, the Deputy Commissioner should, with the sanction of Government, have the Savings Bank account of the deceased Ranganna transferred in his own name in his Official capacity, and draw the interest periodically for disbursement in the trust. Otherwise, it is not possible to pay interest to a party in whose name the account is not kept in the Treasury. The 2 enclosures received with the above are herewith returned.
